

Robert A. Swenson

"Utah's Choo-Choo Man"

Utah's Choo-Choo Man has moved on, but those cheerful railway sounds will continue to sing their song. A twinkle from soft blue eyes and a gentle embrace will never be forgotten nor erased. Always quick with a joke and he knew just what to say, to foster new hope or brighten someone's day. His legacy he leaves behind with emotions hard to contain, His memory will forever guard the love he shared in his trains.

Robert Alver Swenson, 79, died December 14, 1997 in Salt Lake City.
